SUMMER NEWS FROM THE MILLER FAMILY ~ JULY 1, 2019

DEAR FRIENDS,

Elkhorn Ranch went abroad this spring, to the annual Fabriano Watercolour Exhibit in Italy. This watercolor of Casa Colina is by long-time Elkhorn guest Cal Srigley from Vancouver, BC. Cal is an architect by trade who does artistic renderings for work. He explained that there are few places he travels where he's inclined to do art for fun, but Elkhorn Ranch is an exception. This spring Cal brought his adult "kids" for their first Elkhorn visit ~ everyone was too busy riding or relaxing at the pool on this trip, so no painting! But Cal did mention that he is taking photos of Snooza home to work on next!

Cal and his wife Kathi have visited Elkhorn as a couple, with friends and now with family. They love riding and have been known to be raucous at the dinner table with the "crazy Canadians". It is a joy to us to see people find different ways to enjoy the ranch experience. We love that the Elkhorn experience is welcoming to solo travelers, couples, families and groups of friends. We appreciate it when you tell people about your ranch vacation as it helps the extended family grow and evolve in keeping with the camaraderie we all enjoy!

We are thankful for the 2018/19 ranch crew! This summer marks a bittersweet transition as we wish Bayley and Jerome well in their move to Jeffers, MT after many devoted years with us. Bayley's working at the public library and Jerome's already started making metal critter art! Lisa's at home in Kentucky helping her folks. Kelsee's working with her family's business in PA. Bryce and Rachel are working at a resort in ND. Craig and Grace are in coastal Oregon. Sarah's tending cattle herds in MT. Jim's home in WY. Laura's at home in Ennis, MT. Hunter's cowboying in WY. Cara's close by in Tucson this summer. Chloe's heading to Australia in the fall. Dave's packing in WY. Roy's cooking at Covered Wagon in MT. Ben is here at Elkhorn this summer, riding young horses and caring for ranch livestock ~ plus helping us keep an eye on the place. Diane's here for the summer doing projects in cabins and looking forward to hearing from many of you to make plans for next season!

RANCH & MILLER FAMILY NEWS

Speaking of Italy, Clara and Alicia are travelers this year! Clara joined a group from the University of Arizona for a three week tour studying sustainable agriculture in northern Italy. Alicia will spend her junior year fall studying in Florence, Italy. Needless to say, the elder Millers are jealous - but thrilled that Clara and Alicia will see more of the world! Alicia is half way through college, majoring in Environmental History at Whitman in Walla Walla, Washington.

We're proud to announce that Clara has graduated from University of Arizona with a degree in range management and that she'll be joining the Elkhorn team full-time. You'll see her mostly at the barn guiding and working along side Charley with Elkhorn land and livestock, and we plan to put her creativity and youth to work in our marketing! We are proud of her and are so fortunate to have a new generation at work here at Elkhorn!

== Congrats to Clara! ==

YOU MIGHT BE WONDERING JUST WHAT RANGE MANAGEMENT MEANS?

If you think about forestry as management of trees and forest systems, range management takes on stewardship of grasslands. Its about understanding how water, sunshine, soils and plants interact ~ as well as the animals that live within these systems, whether they're wild critters or livestock. Range management is an aspect of Elkhorn Ranch business as the horses' primary feed comes from our land and we aim to manage this resource sustainably for the long run! This goal also fuels our work with the Altar Valley Conservation Alliance.
